

American Healing Arts Foundation

Laural Delaney Encaustic Wax Painting Classes 2011

This is a very impressive medium for painting and the results are extraordinary. Due to the hot waxes, irons and dryers it is quite an intensive class. Laural keeps these classes to a smaller size for safety reasons. Laural's classes were well received and her students want to return and learn more next year. She looks forward to teaching the AHAF veterans again for 2012.